Solidarity HealthShare is a non-profit ministry and a recognized 501(c)(3) with the Internal Revenue service and must comply not only with the laws and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service, but also all fifty states' attorney general's offices and insurance commissioners. Even though Solidarity is not health insurance, and technically not under the supervision of the insurance commissioners of the states, Solidarity must be very careful with its Member development and language to ensure Solidarity is not classified as insurance or misleads others to think Solidarity is health insurance. For example, if Solidarity promotes and communicates to its Members insurance terms, our potential and current Members may be misled to think that they are buying health insurance. This confusion may lead insurance commissioners to attempt to regulate healthcare sharing ministries (HCSM). Therefore, it is important for Solidarity to provide clear and accurate communication on who we are and what we do.

HCSMs in general, and Solidarity in particular are far from being health insurance. It is a completely different concept whereby Members must be engaged in their healthcare decisions and the costs associated with them. If our Members treat healthcare sharing like insurance and are not engaged in the process, Solidarity will struggle to fulfill its mission as a ministry. This paradigm shift is critical. Most people are accustomed to handing over their health insurance card, paying the copay and not being concerned with the costs of the healthcare services. This lack of accountability and transparency in pricing by detaching the consumer of healthcare from the actual costs is one of the main reasons driving the rising costs of healthcare in the United States.

Members of Solidarity need to be aware that the United States has the greatest delivery of Healthcare Services in the world, but arguably the worst payor system. Solidarity was founded to protect the conscience of the faithful consumer and provider of healthcare so the Members would not have to share in medical expenses like contraception, abortion, sterilization, gender reassignment, and euthanasia. There are other moral issues with the current health insurance model to include the lack of transparency in pricing and the overpricing of medical expenses by healthcare systems.

Healthcare Services are medical or healthcare services that Members receive. Not all Healthcare Services are considered Eligible Medical Expenses. Only Eligible Medical Expenses are Eligible for Sharing among the Members. See Sharing Guidelines.*
